Craidd brings together five Welsh organisations - Theatr Clwyd, Sherman Theatre, Pontio Arts, The Torch Theatre, and the Royal Welsh College of Music & Drama, in a shared commitment to change.

At its heart, Craidd works alongside Deaf, disabled and neurodivergent people to improve representation across Wales, both on stage and behind the scenes. The collaboration also supports positive, lasting change within the partner organisations and across the wider theatre sector.

The name Craidd, meaning "core" in Welsh, reflects the partnership's belief that inclusive practice should sit at the centre of all theatre-making.

Under Milk Wood represents an important milestone for Craidd. It is our statement of intent that will lead the way for inclusive productions throughout Wales.

Together we will create theatre that is imagined, developed and delivered with access built in from the very beginning.

If you have any questions about the work of Craidd please contact Director for Change, Sara Beer:

Sara.Beer@craidd.cymru

Mae Craidd yn dod â phum sefydliad o Gymru at ei gilydd - Theatr Clwyd, Theatr y Sherman, Celfyddydau Pontio, Theatr y Torch, a Choleg Brenhinol Cerdd a Drama Cymru, gydag ymrwymiad cyffredin i newid.

Wrth ei wraidd, mae Craidd yn gweithio ochr yn ochr â phobl Fyddar, anabl a niwroamrywiol i wella cynrychiolaeth ledled Cymru, ar y llwyfan a'r tu ôl i'r llenni. Mae'r cydweithrediad hefyd yn cefnogi newid cadarnhaol, parhaol o fewn y sefydliadau partner ac ar draws y sector theatr ehangach.

Mae'r enw Craidd yn adlewyrchu cred y bartneriaeth y dylai ymarfer cynhwysol fod wrth wraidd yr holl waith creu mewn theatr.

Mae Under Milk Wood yn cynrychioli carreg filltir bwysig i Craidd. Dyma ein datganiad o fwriad ni a fydd yn arwain y ffordd ar gyfer cynyrchiadau cynhwysol ledled Cymru.

Gyda'n gilydd byddwn yn creu theatr sy'n cael ei dychmygu, ei datblygu a'i chyflwyno gyda mynediad wedi'i gynnwys o'r dechrau un.

Os oes gennych chi unrhyw gwestiynau am waith Craidd cysylltwch â'r Cyfarwyddwr dros Newid, Sara Beer:

Dreamer.
Drifter.
Poet.
Rogue.

Dylan Thomas made words dance, sing, and occasionally stumble with a mischievous grin. Born in Wales in 1914, his writing is rich, sticky, and impossible to resist.

Under Milk Wood is a hilarious, occasionally naughty and slightly spooky peek into the lives of the small Welsh seaside town of Llareggub (say it backwards...). Each character, from the town gossips to the lovesick dreamers, feel like they've escaped his vivid daydream.

The play is rhythmic and lyrical, exposing the dreams, the lies and the secret wishes of a town where everyone is as colorful, strange, and delightful as Thomas was himself.

Breuddwydiwr.
Crwydryn.
Bardd.
Adyn.

Fe lwyddodd Dylan Thomas i wneud i eiriau ddawnsio, canu ac, weithiau, baglu gyda gwên ddireidus. Wedi'i eni yng Nghymru yn 1914, mae ei ysgrifennu'n gyfoethog, yn gymhleth, ac yn amhosibl ei wrthsefyll.

Mae Under Milk Wood yn gipolwg hynod ddoniol, drygionus ar adegau, a fymryn yn frawychus ar fywydau pobl y dref glan môr fechan yng Nghymru, Llareggub (dywedwch y gair am yn ôl...). Mae pob cymeriad, o helwyr clecs y dref i'r breuddwydwyr sy'n dyheu am gariad, yn teimlo fel eu bod nhw wedi dianc o'i synfyfyrio byw.

Mae'r ddrama'n rhythmig ac yn delynegol, gan ddatgelu breuddwydion, celwyddau a dymuniadau cyfrinachol tref lle mae pawb mor lliwgar, rhyfedd a hyfryd ag yr oedd Thomas ei hun.
